

ABOUT DENNIS JERNIGAN

Known primarily for his worship music, Dennis Jernigan is also known for having walked away from his former homosexual identity and into that of a heterosexual. Married for 31 years to Melinda, they have nine children and make their home in Muskogee, Oklahoma where they are now welcoming grandchildren. Having been walking in freedom from his former homosexual identity since November 7, 1981, Jernigan takes great joy in sharing the grace and love of God with any who desire freedom in their own lives. DJ spends a great deal of time encouraging others to embrace their true identity in Christ.

His story has recently been made available in a documentary called Sing Over Me. In addition, his autobiography by the same title is also available. Both can be found at www.dennisjernigan.com
